NEW ORDINANCE ABOUT AWNINGS

LAW WHICH THE SUPERVISORS OF THIS COUNTY PROPOSE TO ENACT NEXT MONTH.

The "awning ordinance" which passed a second reading of the County Board of Supervisors at their meeting last night, and which will come up for passage at some meeting after the third of next month, relates to permanent awnings being provided with gutters, and reads as follows:

Section 1. No person shall construct or cause to be constructed or maintain or cause to be maintained any awning shade or balcony extending over any part of any public sidewalk on any building within the fire limits of Honolulu as defined in Section 956 of the Revised Laws of Hawaii, without a gutter thereon to conduct the water to the building and a pipe to conduct such water to the outer line of the sidewalk so constructed as not to obstruct with public traffic upon such sidewalk.

Provided, however, that the provisions of this ordinance shall not apply to cloth or canvas awnings or shades.

Section 2. Any person violating any provision of this ordinance shall, upon conviction, be fined in a sum not exceeding three hundred dollars ($300).

Section 3. The continuance of any such violation after conviction shall be deemed a new offense for each day on which the same is so continued.

Section 4. This ordinance shall take effect from and after its publication.

SEVEN BATTLESHIPS CALLED DEFECTIVE

THE "NAVY" CONDEMNED OREGON CLASS, IOWA AND OTHERS FOR "SOFT ENDS"

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 1.—Alleged serious defects in the construction of the Oregon, the Massachusetts, the Indiana, the Iowa, the Kentucky and the Kearsarge are made the subject of an article in the last issue of The Navy. The author says that the long stretch at bow and stern is a serious mistake. It also comments on the open space on the armor about each gun, "which is so great as to invite the immediate wrecking of every gun by a hostile ship shooting moderately straight, according to the standards of today." The article says in part:

"The 'soft end' ship, especially the ship with no armor protection for her steering engines—a ship that is like the six named—is easily rendered unmanageable, practically put out of the fight, by a few shells in this unprotected region. The unfitness of such ships for battle was beautifully demonstrated in the destruction of the fast Russian armored cruiser Rurik by a Japanese cruiser squadron in the recent war."

"The Rurik was a 'soft end' ship; the Japanese disabled her steering gear almost at the first fire, and the Japanese admiral could take his heavier cruisers in pursuit of the other ships of the Vladivostok squadron, leaving his smaller cruisers to finish up the Rurik, and they sank her. No battle ship in either the German or French navy—even those as old as the Oregon—has soft ends."

"During the late war, in the Far East the English built 'soft end' ships of the Russian fleet were easy victims; the French built continuous belt ships; notably the Sevastopol demonstrated the virtue of that element in their design."

"Another grave defect common to the six ships named, and a defect that is absolutely inexcusable, is the invitation offered to hostile projectiles by enormous gun ports. Both in the turrets and in the casemates of all these ships the open space in the armor about each gun is so great as to invite the immediate wrecking of every gun by a hostile ship shooting moderately straight according to the standards of today."

"The mechanism of the broadside guns and the gunners who operate them stand wholly unprotected, while the huge ports in the turrets—ports nearly double the proper size, in the first place, and, in the second place, wholly unprotected by shutters—leave the gun mechanism and the crews of the turret guns little better off than those in the casemates."

PAK CHEE AGAIN.

A warrant was issued this morning for the arrest of Pak Chee the obstreperous Chinaman who has been in a good deal of trouble of late, charging him with having committed an assault and battery on one Yang Hing in a soup house in Chinatown last night. Pak Chee was in trouble before this, being out on bail pending the appeal of a similar case in which he was found guilty and sentenced for 40 days on the reef less than two weeks ago.

FUTURE OF THE OCEANIC

NEW COMPANY MAY BE FORMED, OR STEAMERS SOLD FOR BOND-HOLDERS.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 1.—The Examiner says: The Oceanic Steamship Company, a Spreckels property which defaulted in its semi-annual interest last January, paid it yesterday, the amount being $60,175. It will default on its July semi-annual interest due tomorrow, but will have an equity period of six months, or until the end of the year, in which to pay. By this means the Spreckels family will get an additional breathing spell, so to speak, and will before the end of the year either arrange for a new company or else confess judgment and allow the five steamships of the company to be sold for the benefit of the bondholders.

The bonds outstanding amount to $2,405,000 and bear 5 per cent interest. In the past two or three years they have had a bad stump and are now quoted at 30 bid and 55 asked. The 26,559 shares of outstanding stock have no market value. They are all held in the Spreckels family and it is understood the latter also holds at least half the bonds.

The company is indebted to the Spreckels family for an overdraft of $2,000,000. In case the Union Trust Company, as trustee for the bondholders, has to sell the five vessels owned by the company it is said by those who know that if the vessels bring at auction the face value of the bonds the holders of the latter can congratulate themselves. So there is every prospect in case of a sale that the Spreckels family will lose their overdraft and have the shares of stock as so much waste paper.

Several months ago the company abandoned the Australasian service and by the existing collapse of the corporation the Spreckels family is out about $7,000,000 and the general public, which held some of the stock at one time, and still holds some of the bonds, about $1,000,000. So it is considered the worst steamship failure in the history of the Pacific coast and one of the worst in the country. People who invested in its stock and bonds and lost heavily ascribe the failure to bad management, while John D. Spreckels, its president, insists that the company was never able to rally from the repeated droughts that affected Australia for several years in succession and which cut off a profitable revenue from the company's steamers.

SAYS CALHOUN BOUGHT THE TIMES

THE FRISCO GRAFT PROSECUTOR FIRES HOT SHOT AT A LOS ANGELES NEWSPAPER.

Los Angeles, July 1.—Francis J. Heney and his wife, together with Lincoln Steffens and George W. Hens, arrived in this city today. Tuesday the party will go to Catalina for a short stay. Mr. Heney will address the Municipal League at a banquet next Friday evening, on "Municipal Redemption." "The Los Angeles Times got $15,000 for defending Calhoun," said Heney in one of his statements. "I have it from one of the Times' own men that Calhoun bought $15,000 worth of papers during the recent strike. The whole trouble between the Times and me is that the Times represents the class I am directly opposed to. I haven't anything more to say now about the charges the Times has been making, but I probably will have something else to say at the Municipal banquet."

PUZZLE OF THE SEA.

SAN DIEGO, Cal., June 22.—One of the puzzles of the sea came to the surface yesterday, when a gigantic sea turtle was captured by Julius Solis, a fisherman. The monster weighs 1,902 pounds and its shell is five feet two inches from tip to tip. On its back is burned or carved this inscription: "British ship Sea Brine, August 12, 1881, 3 south, 86 west. If found, please notify Thomas Fletcher, Brawley Road, Livingston, England."

It would appear from this fact that the turtle was captured twenty-six years ago in the south Pacific and that he was released after the lettering had been burned in its shell.

THE LIQUOR COMMISSION.

It is likely that the Liquor License Commission will adjourn this afternoon until July 19, Friday week. No more applications for licenses are to be heard before that date. It is not expected that the session this afternoon at 4 o'clock will be of extended character, as little remains to be done.

HEALTH RECOVERED.

Mrs. von Rosenmiller, who arrived here three weeks ago in such a precarious state of health that her recovery was doubtful, was on the streets again on Thursday looking the picture of health. Asked as to the recipe for the remarkable change in her appearance she replied that she had spent the time, since her arrival in Hawaii at Haleiwa where, by taking judicious exercise and the enjoyment of her meals she was restored to health. Much of her strength she attributed to regular sleep, the absence of mosquitoes in her room seemed to have encouraged rest. St. Clair Biddog verifies Mrs. von Rosenmiller's statement.

EVERYBODY REFUSES THE FEES

ACTING GOVERNOR ATKINSON NOT THE ONLY UNPAID OFFICIAL JUROR.

Honor to whom honor is due and it is not apparently, due to Acting Governor Atkinson to be the first government official the credit of refusing to accept fees for testifying in a criminal case. High Sheriff Henry says he refused some time before the Acting Governor had the chance to refuse. But the glory of the High Sheriff was short lived, for here comes Chester Doyle, former Criminologist and present acting chief clerk of the attorney general's department, with a counter claim for the credit. Doyle says he did it with his little refusal, hours before the High Sheriff.

In any event the territory and the county are in about $1 by the refusal of these public spirited officials to collect witness fees.
